Tacoma Police detectives need your help to locate a missing man, feared to be the victim of foul play. Raymond "Playboy" Canley has been missing under suspicious circumstances since November of 2016.

Raymond Canley last contacted his family on November 7th, 2016. He has not been seen or heard from by his mother, his wife, or his children since mid-November 2016, which is described as highly unusual.

At the time he went missing Raymond Jermaine Canley was described as a light skinned black male, 36 years old, 5'11" tall, 300 lbs., with dark brown hair and green eyes. He had several tattoos including the name "Valinda" on his chest.

Raymond Canley was known to use the street name "Playboy", and was involved in the use and sale of narcotics and stolen property. Investigators are concerned Canley's disappearance may be related to his involvement in these illegal activities.

Detectives are looking for any information regarding Raymond Canley's disappearance and/or his whereabouts, including any suspicious persons he may have been seen with in November of 2016.
