MISSING PERSON

TEEKAH LEWIS

AGE PROGRESSION

Tacoma Police detectives need your help to locate missing person Teekah Lewis, who was kidnapped as a child.

On Jan. 23, 1999, at approximately 10:30 p.m., Teekah Lewis disappeared from the New Frontier Lanes bowling alley located in the 4700 block of Center St. in Tacoma. She was last seen playing in the arcade area of the bowling alley before she went missing.

Teekah, a black and Native American female, was 2 years old when she disappeared. She was 3'0" and 35 lbs., with black hair, brown eyes, and pierced ears. She suffered from asthma and allergies. She was wearing a green Tweety Bird t-shirt, white sweatpants, and red, white, and black Air Jordan shoes.

A maroon late 1980's or 90's Pontiac Grand Am with tinted windows and a spoiler was seen speeding away from the bowling alley parking lot shortly after Teekah disappeared.

Detectives have released an age-progression photo showing how they believe Teekah Lewis may look now that she would be in her mid 20's.

Receive up to $1000 dollars for information leading to the arrest and charges filed for the person in this case.
