Tacoma Police detectives need your help in locating Diana Davis, who has been missing under suspicious circumstances since July 27, 2020.

At 10:54 p.m. on Wednesday July 29, 2020, a silver 2013 Chevrolet Impala was found fully engulfed in flames in the 1600 block of Court E road in downtown Tacoma. The vehicle's registered owner - Diana Davis - was not located at the scene and her current whereabouts are unknown. Davis has not been seen or heard from since approximately 3:00 p.m. on Monday July 27, 2020, and the circumstances surrounding her disappearance are concerning.

Diana Davis is a 50 year old black female, 5'5" tall, 105 lbs., with black hair and brown eyes. Davis lives in the Auburn area.

Detectives are looking for any information on Davis' whereabouts, including any suspicious persons or activity in the area where her burned car was found. They are also looking for any information on where Davis' silver Chevrolet Impala with Washington license plates BSR0058 may have been located between July 27 and the night of July 29.
