

FATAL HIT & RUN

VICTIM

JESSICA MARIE HANSON

The Pierce County Sheriff's Department needs your help to identify the suspect responsible for a fatal hit and run collision.

At approximately 4:18 a.m. on Saturday May 13th, 2017, a passerby found an unconscious woman in the roadway on 168th St. E. near the intersection with B St. E. in Spanaway. The critically injured woman was identified as 31 year old Jessica Hanson; she later died from her injuries on May 26th, 2017.

Deputies were able to determine that just prior to being found, Hanson had been involved in an argument at her residence. Hanson walked less than six blocks from her house along 168th St. E., then is believed to have been run over by an unidentified vehicle that fled the scene.

Investigators found a fog lamp and a red and black hubcap near where the victim was found; it unknown what type of make or model vehicle these parts came from.
