Tacoma Police detectives need your help to locate a missing woman, feared to be the victim of foul play. Tami Kowalchuk has been missing under suspicious circumstances since December of 1999.

The last known sighting of Tami Kowalchuk occurred on the night of December 25th, 1999, when she was seen entering a small white car occupied by unknown person(s) outside of her family's home on E. Morton Ave. in Tacoma. Kowalchuk did not take any clothing or personal items with her. Kowalchuk's family reported her missing in 2004, and police have been unable to locate her or any persons who have had contact with her since 1999.

At the time of her disappearance Tami Faye Kowalchuk was a white female, 17 years old, 5' tall, 100 lbs., with blue eyes and blonde hair. She was known to also use the name "Tabitha" on the street.

Detectives are looking for any information regarding Tami Kowalchuk's disappearance and/or her whereabouts.
