Tacoma Police detectives need your help to identify the suspect responsible for the murder of Pamela Thomas.

On the night of December 11th, 1996, a witness discovered a woman's body hidden under a tarp in the backyard of the witness' residence. The victim was identified as Pamela Thomas, a 40 year-old woman had been reported missing on November 5th, 1996. Investigators determined Thomas died from homicidal violence and believe her body had been concealed under the tarp for several weeks.

The residence where Thomas' body was found is located in the 1700 block of S. L St. and was less than four blocks from the victim's last known address on S. M St. in the Hilltop area of the City of Tacoma.

Detectives are looking for any information on Pamela Thomas' whereabouts in late November of 1996, and for information any suspicious persons seen in the area where her body was discovered.
